

Rotorcraft Directorate ASW-100 presents:

2016 International Rotorcraft Safety Conference

Describes the risk-based certification strategy and regulatory approach the FAA is taking to integrate unmanned aerial systems into the National Airspace System in a safe and judicious manner. The presentation discusses current FAA projects and initiatives and discusses the details of the FAA certification process. The presentation also reviews how unmanned aerial systems technology may be used for new transportation concepts that could change the way we fly for personal transportation, including highly automated vertical-takeoff-and-landing aircraft.
